

STEP #1 APPLY FOR COF

To apply for Colorado Opportunity Fund (COF), go to <https://cof.college-assist.org> and click “Apply Now”.

COLLEGE OPPORTUNITY FUND

FAQ CONTACT US LOGIN

The State of Colorado is Investing in Your Education

Are you planning on attending a private or public college in the state of Colorado? Here is your opportunity to receive this state benefit if you attend a participating college and meet the eligibility requirements.

Apply Now!

CURRENT STIPEND AMOUNT
PUBLIC COLLEGE	PRIVATE COLLEGE
$40	$20
per credit hour	per credit hour

Eligibility Requirements

- Eligibility requirements are different based on the college you attend.
- View Public College Eligibility Requirements
- View Private College Eligibility Requirements

Application Requirements

- Applicants must be 13 years or older More

Popular Questions

- What is The College Opportunity Fund (COF)?
- Do I have to reapply each year?
- How does the stipend get sent to my college?
- I am transferring from one college to another. How do I transfer my College Opportunity Fund?

STEP #2 APPLY TO PPCC

1. To complete your PPCC application, you will need a parent/guardian's assistance. Go to www.ppcc.edu > then click “Apply” > click “Create Account”.
2. Your PPCC student ID number (S number) will appear at the top of the last page of the application.
3. Print this confirmation page for your records.
4. Email your CECCS advisor your PPCC S number.

PIKES PEAK COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Search

Login Apply

Current Students Faculty & Staff Community Military & Veterans

Admissions Academics Student Life About PPCC

Experience what it's like to be a PPCC student.

Gallery >